

*Love
Makes a Family!*

Baby and Me?

A support group for those who want a safe and accepting, queer friendly, all gender and understanding space for parenting thinkers or try-ers!

Seeking to support anyone who is considering starting a family - alone, with a partner or others, in a group, or in other ways outside the 'normative' ways of creating family.

- A safe place to process what this might mean for you and those who support you.
- A supportive place to discuss issues, fears, hopes, longings and courage regarding starting a family, in whatever way this means to you.

$40/session, 6 weeks, potential to be ongoing

Starting November

Dates to be arranged, Tuesday or Wednesday afternoon, depending on group need

All interested people will have a brief phone screen.

Led by Samara

Grossman, LICSW:

I am a long-time resident of Jamaica Plain, a graduate of Smith College School of Social Work, and a proud single mother by choice to 2 wonderful children. My mission in these groups is to provide community and safe support and exploration space for anyone thinking about or living in alternative families.

Samara Grossman, LICSW

The Meeting Point
3464 Washington Street
Jamaica Plain, MA
02130
617 431 6696
Also serving individual clients- accepting private pay, sliding scale, Blue Cross Blue Shield and Harvard Pilgrim/Optum

Parenting Outside

the Boxes

A parenting support group for those who already have children and want a safe and accepting, queer friendly, all gender and understanding space to talk about the joys, frustrations, triumphs and difficulties of being a parent.

$40/session, 6 weeks, potential to be ongoing

Starting November

Dates to be arranged, Tuesday or Wednesday afternoon, depending on group need.

All interested people will have a brief phone screen.

